City Recorder Allison Baker called the roll: Mayor Duncan present, Vice Mayor Tinnin absent, Commissioner Anderson present, Commissioner Bell present, and Commissioner Young present.

Consider new business.

Consider and appoint an interim City Judge. Mayor Duncan stated due to the opinion of our counsel it appears the board will need to appoint an interim judge for a period of 30 days and after that point the board will have to reappoint and vote again for an additional 30 days. Mayor Duncan made a motion to nominate Judge Carol Solomon for this appointment. She was nice enough to agree to assist the City of Goodlettsville. Commissioner Anderson seconded the motion. Commissioner Young questioned if the nomination was for a 30-day appointment. City Attorney Russell Freeman stated he didn't think it was necessary that the appointment be for a specific period. His opinion is that it cannot be for more than 30 days. There was additional discussion. His thoughts are at this first meeting in January there would be another appointment whether it be a continuation under the secondary appointment of Carol Solomon or another individual. Vote was then taken which resulted in a 4-0 vote to appoint Judge Carol Solomon as interim City Judge.

With no further business, Commissioner Young made a motion to adjourn. Commissioner Bell seconded the motion. The meeting was adjourned at approximately 5:03 p.m. with a 4-0 vote.
